IT'S HERE! YOUR STA

Summer officially starts on June 21st, but by that time our Star-Spangled Summer should be in full swing.

We've filled a three-month package of programming with the best movies, specials, series and all-around great entertainment we could find. Most of them are new, first-run and exclusive on The Disney Channel.

Leading our festival of hits is "The Love Bug," starring Dean Jones, Michele Lee and Herbie, the Volkswagen Beetle that went on to make motion picture history. There may be somebody in Wagga Wagga or Chungwei who never heard of Herbie, but the rest of the world certainly has. We'll premiere "Herbie Rides Again" in July, "Herbie Goes to Monte Carlo" in August, and then—for good measure—"Herbie Goes Bananas" in September.

It's been noted that creative people at the Disney Studio are as colorful as the characters they bring to life on screen. Their talents are limitless, and they're well worth knowing. So this month we introduce Clarence Nash, the raucous voice of Donald Duck, as the first of 13 studio veterans you'll meet on "Disney Family Album." He's followed in July by animator Ward Kimball, a card-carrying nonconformist who started his Disney career on April Fool's Day and is still kidding around. The Academy Award-winning songwriters Richard M. and

"...best movies, specials, series and all-around great entertainment."

Robert B. Sherman hold forth in August. You'll enjoy these close-ups of our versatile teammates.

Heidi, the little Swiss girl who leaves her Alpine home for adventures in the world below, makes her mini-series debut this month in "Heidi in the Mountains." Next month you'll find "Heidi in Town," and in August back in the Alps when "Heidi Comes Home." These charming stories were filmed in Old Country locales and feature some of Europe's finest actors.

"Steve Allen's Music Room" rocks to the rhythms of outstanding and often legendary performers. This month Steve presents Sarah Vaughan, Dizzy Gillespie and composer Henry Mancini. Next month he sings and plays with Paul Williams, Melba Moore and Joe Williams. In August his guests are Rosemary Clooney, Lou Rawls and Red Holloway. Steve's "Music Room" almost rivals Carnegie Hall for summer concert stars! Oh, and while we're talking music, don't miss the Channel's nostalgic Big Band specials direct from Disneyland.

Beginning this month, you'll swing 'n' sway to Count Basie's orchestra, followed by other name bands like Glenn Miller, Woody Herman, Cab Calloway, Bob Crosby, Ray McKinley, Jimmy Dorsey, Artie Shaw, Lionel Hampton, Les Brown, Tommy Dorsey, Buddy Rich. Fabulous arrangements. Glorious sounds. Glowing memories. Moonlight magic from Disneyland.

R-SPANGLED SUMMER

of "The Edison Twins" continues this month with "Delinquent" and "Diamonds." July finds them involved with UFO's and a swim meet. In August they encounter the "Monster on the Bluff" and "Twinners." This prize-winning series, commended by educators, originates in Canada.

"Five Mile Creek," our frontier adventure series from Down Under, begins its second season on The Channel with two complete-in-themselves episodes this month. "The Challenge" is highlighted by a breakneck stagecoach race, and "Blood, Sweat and Faith" features a jolting bushranger raid. You'll find more action on the Outback as mail order brides arrive, and motley characters come and go throughout the summer.

Our cavalcade of Charlie Chaplin comedies is winning a whole new generation of fans. The Little Tramp tries prospecting this month in "The Gold Rush," and strikes a bonanza of laughs. Next month he turns up in a trilogy of burlesques: "A Dog's Life," "Shoulder Arms" and "The Pilgrim."

In August he joins "The Circus," where he competes with a handsome tightrope walker for the charms of a beautiful bareback rider. Guess who gets the girl! Chaplin, whose film career began 70 years ago and ended in 1957, is praised by critics as "the screen's greatest actor, its most important creative figure, and the most famous man in its history." These classics help tell why.

"Creative people at the Disney Studio are as colorful as the characters they bring to life."

Recognizing the need for quality children's entertainment, we've gone to filmmakers everywhere in the world. This month we're pleased to premiere "Jiminy Cricket Theatre," a showcase for fine international films made especially for young people. They'll see a mystery set on Fire Island, New York, a comedy from England, and two episodes of a juvenile series starring "The Kids of DeGrassi Street" in Toronto. Next month they'll share experiences with an Indian girl from Los Angeles who finds her roots in Oklahoma, excitement with four British youngsters and some hijackers, and more fun with the kids of DeGrassi Street. In August there's high adventure on the high seas with four Australian teenagers, a sports fantasy with an English schoolboy, and still more diversion on DeGrassi Street.

Bright new specials include "Here Comes Sam...The Making of an Olympic Symbol"; two full-length animated films, "On Vacation with Mickey Mouse" and "Aladdin and His Magic Lamp"; and two Academy Award-winning features, "The Great American Cowboy" and "The Living Desert." Among forthcoming Disney movies are "Johnny Tremain," "The Great Locomotive Chase" and "Lt. Robin Crusoe, U.S.N."

We hope you'll sit back, relax and enjoy your Star-Spangled Summer on The Disney Channel! ♥

"HERBIE" FILM FESTIVAL LAUNCHES OUR STAR-SPANGLED SUMMER

The Love Bug

Dean Jones, Michele Lee, David Tomlinson, Buddy Hackett

Dean Jones as a has-been race driver makes a sensational comeback with the help of Herbie, a 1963 Volkswagen Beetle with a wonderfully winning personality

One of Disney's brightest stars turns 21 this year. He's five feet tall, superbly built, and able to drink gallons if need be without ever getting out of line. He's quiet and courteous, a real pro who'll work anytime, anywhere, in any weather. He made his movie debut at age six, and went on to score in three more box office hits and a TV mini-series. His name is Herbie. He's a 1963 Sunroof model Volkswagen, and we're proud to introduce him to our Disney Channel family in "The Love Bug." His adventures continue throughout our "Star-Spangled Summer" in "Herbie Rides Again," "Herbie Goes to Monte Carlo" and "Herbie Goes Bananas."

Making his film bow in the title role, Herbie plays a VW Beetle whose pistons throb with the enviable human emotions of tenderness, passion and loyalty. Looking for a new owner, he chooses a has-been race driver named Jim Douglas (Dean Jones). Now that car's met boy, boy meets girl—a racing buff named Carole Bennett (Michele Lee). With the addition of Jim's pal Tennessee Steinmetz (Buddy Hackett), the four form an unbeatable racing team.

Herbie has a mind of his own and likes to shift for himself, but he meets his match in the reigning raceway king, Peter Thorndyke (David Tomlinson). Thorndyke is pretty shifty himself, and the showdown comes at a cross-country race that makes the Grand Prix look like a go-cart run.

PEOPLE BEHIND THE MAGIC

Clarence "Ducky" Nash

If you were to stroll around the Disney Studios on any weekday, chances are you'd pass some of the most famous talents in the world—without recognizing them. So join us as we open the "Disney Family Album" and introduce you to a baker's dozen of the people whose names are synonymous with Walt Disney Productions. Visit them at work and at home, and enjoy an intimate review of their lives and accomplishments.

This month say hi to Clarence Nash, a familiar and endearing member of the Studio family who began his unusual career as the voice of Donald Duck 50 years ago.

"Ducky" Nash was able to imitate birds and animals when Walt Disney hired him on December 2, 1933. About six months later

Nash supplied the quacktalk when Donald Duck made his debut in "The Wise Little Hen." Don was only a bit player but he stole the show. He wow-ed 'em again in his next cartoon, "Orphan's Benefit," starring Mickey Mouse. Since then Donald Duck and Clarence Nash have been inseparable through more than 160 cartoons and several full-length features including "The Three Caballeros" and "Saludos Amigos."

On future "Disney Family Album" shows you'll meet Milt Kahl, Ward

Kimball, Jim Macdonald, Wolfgang Reitherman, Ken Anderson, Peter and Harrison Ellenshaw, Eric Larson, Richard M. and Robert B. Sherman, John Hench and Bill Evans, all veterans whose contributions reach back to the studio's early years.

Gumby takes a tea break

THE GUMBY® SHOW

Gumby, the flexible little man of clay, journeys from the primeval past to the unpredictable present.

"Egg Trouble" finds him in Dinosaurland, where he must cope with earthquakes, volcanic eruptions and stampeding prehistoric animals. In "Mysterious Fires" he helps the subjects of a medieval kingdom who are threatened with famine because mysterious fires are destroying their fields.

Gumby's friend Prickle becomes an instant artist in "Mystic Magic," and Gumby is a sculptor in "The Glob." Mon., 6:00 p.m.

DISNEYLAND SPORTACULAR

Disneyland hosts 128 finalists in the U.S.T.A./Sport Goofy National Junior Tennis Championships.

These 12- to 14-year-old Americans from all over the country, our tennis stars of tomorrow, are headed for international championship competitions at Walt Disney World. Those matches will be shown on The Disney Channel next month.

Before the games begin at Cota de Caza, California, they're welcomed to Disneyland by Sport Goofy, Dick Van Patten, his wife Patti and Vic Braden, America's foremost tennis teacher.

Fast-paced action, excitement and entertain-

TRAIL OF DANGER

Jim Davis, Larry Wilcox

The range wars between ranchers and sheepmen provide material for some of Hollywood's best westerns. Here's a dandy for you, starring Jim Davis of "Dallas" fame and Larry Wilcox of "CHiPS."

Davis, as Pop Apling, is a seasoned trail driver. Wilcox, as Beech Carter, is a cynical young wrangler.

Herding 22 half-starved horses over 180 miles of sun-parched land, they're prey for sheep raisers who are out to kill them. There's not enough food and water to go around.

A generation gap adds to their problems as they fight through hostile territory.

SON OF ROBIN HOOD

David Hedison, June Laverick, David Farrar

A crusader (David Hedison) returns to England and finds it in danger of being taken over by an ambitious nobleman (David Farrar). In order to lead the people in rebellion, he assumes the guise of Robin Hood's son — then learns that Robin's only child is a girl (June Laverick).

They meet, and share adventures that lead to a history-changing climax.

Aunt Dete brings Heidi to live in the Alps with her reclusive grandfather Ohi

It's easy to see why Johanna Spyri's immortal tale of a little orphan growing up with her grandfather in the Swiss Alps is a natural for The Disney Channel. Several film versions have been made—but we've found one that really gives this worldwide favorite the recognition it deserves.

This French production is a six-hour mini-series, so the whole family can enjoy Heidi's adventures at a pace as leisurely as life in a small mountain village. We're showing it in three two-hour segments, one each month during our Star-Spangled Summer.

Filmed on location against a breathtaking panoramic Alpine backdrop, the opening episode also shows Heidi's friendship with young Peter (Stefan Arpagaus), a solitary goatherd who teaches her the secrets of his bucolic world. But the authorities, the villagers, and aunt Dete lurk at the corners of Heidi's sunny new life, waiting to whisk her away from her beloved Ohi.

THE EXPLORERS "The Sahara"

As large as the continental United States, with temperatures that reach 175 degrees, the mighty Sahara desert is a formidable adversary to anyone brave enough to attempt a crossing.

Explorer Frank McHugh leads a hearty few across the Algerian sections of the desert, traveling by Land Rover, camel and on foot. They take tea with nomadic Berber tribesmen, find ancient rock paintings in the mountains, and make their way from oasis to oasis through one of earth's harshest environments.

It's let's-get-dancin' time on DTV as recording artists from Annette Funicello to Tennessee Ernie Ford furnish the music for our video stars.

Mickey, Goofy and friends vacation in Hawaii to the tune of Annette's "Pineapple Princess." Down at the malt shop, all the cats join in for a jitterbug session to Danny and the Juniors' "At the Hop." The Martins and the Cows, those feudin' mountain boys, quarrel to Little Richard's rendition of "Long Tall Sally." Goofy and Pluto wander in and out of Wonderland while Johnny Burnett sings his country ballad, "Dreamin'."

Flamenco dancers click and stomp to The Diamonds' recording of "Little Darlin'." Goofy goes surfing as Jan and Dean deliver their top hit of 1963, "Surf City." Pluto eats a magnet and gets stuck with all kinds of things during Elvis Presley's "Stuck on You."

Donald Duck mines gold and Dumbo and his mother work in the rain while Tennessee Ernie Ford sings "Sixteen Tons."

Join them on this fun-filled romp through these choice oldie-but-still-goodies.

Melvyn Douglas as Doc

PORTRAIT OF GRANDPA DOC

Melvyn Douglas, Bruce Davison, Anne Seymour

Greg (Bruce Davison), a promising young artist, is preparing for the most important exhibit of his career. As he paints, he views old home movies and fading snapshots from the days when his Grandpa Doc (Melvyn Douglas) was alive. Grandpa Doc was the one person who understood Greg's dreams and encouraged him when no one else did. He captures those recollections on canvas, and creates a fitting tribute to his "best friend."

Anyone who remembers the love and support of someone special in the past will respond to this gentle, easy-flowing celebration of family, memories and ties that bind.

THE CAT FROM OUTER SPACE

Ken Berry, Sandy Duncan, Harry Morgan, Roddy McDowall, McLean Stevenson

There's plenty of Disney saucery in this cosmic comedy about an alien feline named Zunar 5J/90 Doric Fourseven (or in earth talk, Jake the cat). When Jake crash-lands his flying saucer on earth, he must fix it and get back into orbit within 36 hours or be ground-bound forever. All he needs for repairs is six cubits of Org-12 (or $120,000 in gold)!

Enter Dr. Frank Wilson (Ken Berry) and his scientific cronies, Liz Bartlett (Sandy Duncan) and Dr. Carl Link (McLean Stevenson). Jake uses thought transference to enlist the trio's help.

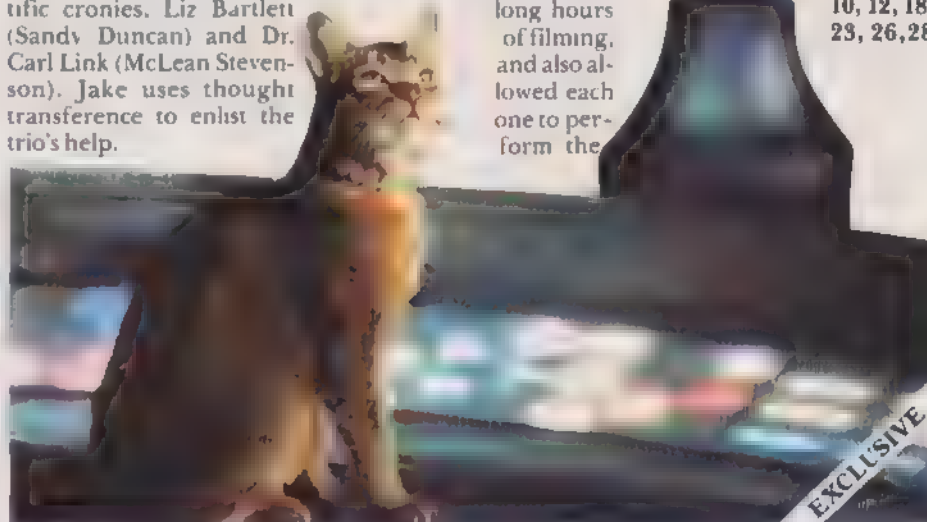

Will they get the gold? Will Jake go off into the wild blue vonder in time? What happens when Lady Luck throws him a curve in the shape of a purr-fectly charming earth kitty? The ending's up in the air until the last hilarious moment of this sci-fi spoof!

Twin Abyssinians were chosen to play Jake because of their exotic appearance. The use of two cats for one role kept them from fatigue during long hours of filming, and also allowed each one to perform the individual stunts which were its speciality.

Trainers rehearsed the cats for three months. Nevertheless, the cameras frequently came to a halt during expensive production time while both Jakes washed their paws and preened like starlets.

Everything's ducky on The Disney Channel this month as Donald celebrates his 50th birthday.

Go back with commentator Gary Owens to 1934 when Donald was hatched—squawking—on an animation table at Walt Disney's Hyperion Avenue studio. Born frustrated, he's never changed.

As his life story unfolds, it becomes clear why audiences relate to him. He's a duck out of water with a

PLUS Pay Day

Charles Chaplin,
Phyllis Allen, Henry Bergman

Judging from your enthusiastic letters, our Charlie Chaplin comedies are making a multitude of new fans. This month we bring you two of his best, "The Gold Rush" (1925), and "Pay Day," a classic two-reeler.

Charlie's prospecting for Klondike gold in 1898. He's thrown in with Big Jim McKay (Mack Swain), another prospector. Snow-bound and starving, Charlie eats his boot while Jim, delirious with hunger, imagines Charlie is a chicken and tries to devour him. Storm over, they part as friends.

That fanciful sequence sets the pace for Chaplin's fable of luckless love and a lucky strike which ends, after boisterous misadventures, happily.

Charlie plays a laborer in "Pay Day" (1922). When he holds out a few bucks from his wife for a night on the town, pandemonium follows.

The March ballots for "Play it Again Cinema" are in and tallied! The count was close for all three choices, but the film most subscribers picked for our first "Play It Again Cinema" encore performance was SWISS FAMILY ROBINSON.

There's enough suspense, laughter and romance in this action-packed tale to suit every armchair traveler. Walt Disney spared no expense or effort to recreate Johann Wyss's classic tale of a Swiss emigrant family shipwrecked on a desert is-

Steve Allen's MUSIC ROOM

It wouldn't be Father's Day without music at the Allen household, so Steve brings Henry Mancini and his twin daughters to this month's gathering round the living room piano.

Mancini, as Steve points out, hardly needs an introduction. He's the triple Oscar-winning, 20 Grammy-winning composer of "Moon River," "Days of Wine and Roses," and innumerable other hits. After playing his theme music from "Peter Gunn," "The Pink Panther,"

Steve Allen sets the mood for fun around the piano

"Harry and Son" and Disney's "Condorman." Mancini is joined by his daughters Felice and Monica. Monica sings "Sometimes," a heartfelt poem to her family written by Felice and set to music by their father.

Steve's other guests are trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie, songstress Sarah Vaughan, jazz authority Gene Lees and singer Lou Rawls. Jerry Gibbs and his band lend instrumental support, and Bill Maher's on hand to help with introductions.

GOOFY'S SALUTE TO FATHER

We've had many requests to see Walt Disney on film and here's a rare opportunity. The honorary father to the world's children introduces a special animated salute to Dad featuring that papa of pandemonium—Goofy.

Selections from eight of The Goof's classic cartoons show his progress from confirmed bachelor to hard-pressed head of the household. Dancing lessons lead to wedding bells and diaper changing isn't far behind. Soon Junior proves as rambunctious as

Goofy has his hands full trying to take care of Junior his pop.

Goofy tries to run the house for a day, goes on a diet, quits smoking and takes Junior to the beach—all with hilariously chaotic results. In the end this tribute to dad reveals that the rewards of fatherhood far outweigh the burdens.

Stuart Whitman and Seeta

Run, Cougar, Run!

Stuart Whitman, Alfonso Arau, Frank Aletter

Seeta, a courageous mountain lion, finds herself pitted against a professional hunter (Stuart Whitman). A shepherd (Alfonso Arau), who lives at peace among the creatures of the wilderness, knows her as a friend to be protected. Within the conflict that develops, problems of animal survival today are suspensefully presented.

Walt Disney assigned many of his True-Life Adventure filmmakers to this full-length feature, which was shot in the Moab, Utah wilderness.

DISCOVER ENTERTAINMENT AND LEARNING WITH SCIENTIFIC TEEN DETECTIVES

Paul, Tom and Ann Edison find a fortune in stolen industrial diamonds and rock a jewel thief's plans

Take characters and mystery stories with all the tantalizing appeal of the old Nancy Drew and Hardy Boys adventures, update for the '80s, then add a large helping of science and you've got "The Edison Twins."

"If you use your head, you can always win," is the theme song for twins Tom and Ann Edison, who prove that science can solve baffling neighborhood mysteries. Pertinent facts and principles are explained in a humorous animated sequence at the end of each episode.

Ann develops a crush on a boy with a questionable past in "Delinquent." When he's accused of arson, she and Tom use facts about reflections and the effect of light on colors to prove his innocence. (See page 32 for a related activity.)

In "Diamonds" little brother Paul accidentally picks up some stolen industrial diamonds for Tom's rock collection. Tom's homemade security camera leads to a last-minute development and invites a discussion of how heat-sensitive film works.

EMIL AND THE DETECTIVES

Walter Slezak, Bryan Russell,
Roger Mobley, Cindy Cassell

On his way to Grandma's house in Berlin with an envelope full of deutsche marks instead of a basket of goodies, young Emil (Brian Russell) is befriended by Grundeis (Heinz Schubert), a wolfish villain who picks Emil's pocket the first chance he gets.

When he discovers the theft, Emil follows Grundeis. He meets and enlists the aid of Gustav (Roger Mobley), a street-savvy urchin and his gang of juvenile detectives.

Emil is Baron's captive

Out to catch one thief, the boys uncover two more — the Baron (Walter Slezak) and his henchman Muller (Peter Ehrlich), who are in cahoots with Grundeis. The three are deeply involved in tunneling under the Bank of Berlin to rob it, and have almost broken through. When the police won't believe them, Emil and his friends take matters into their own hands for a surprise ending that's pure dynamite!

JIMINY CRICKET HOSTS INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

JIMINY CRICKET THEATRE

Jiminy Cricket's a globe hopper who knows what kids like. He's jumped all over the world to find the best shows—comedies, adventures, mysteries—for our young Disney Channel viewers. Beginning this month he kicks off his own "Jiminy Cricket Theatre," a weekly program consisting of two new shows every other Sunday.

On June 3 Jiminy raises the curtain with "Mystery at Fire Island." In this hour-long sleuthacular, pre-teens Dash and her cousin Jess (Beth Ehlers, Eric Gurry) use Dash's uncanny skill as a portrait artist to investigate odd goings-on at the beach.

For the second film on this premiere program,

Jiminy introduces "The Kids of DeGrassi Street." DeGrassi Street is in Toronto, and the kids in the picture really live there.

They're not actors, just ordinary youngsters with normal, everyday problems. In "Noel Buys a Suit," 12-year-old Noel is unhappy about his widowed father's upcoming marriage. Sent to buy a suit for the wedding, he blunders into a comedy of errors and misunderstandings.

On June 17 Jiminy presents a comedy from Britain. "The Electric Eskimo," followed by another adventure with the kids of DeGrassi Street.

A scientific experiment at the north pole accidentally turns Puchook (Kris Emerson) into a super-charged battery. Taken to England for study, the high-voltage Eskimo boy leads energy-hungry spies on a merry chase.

Back on DeGrassi Street, "Ida Makes a Movie" Ida is bored, sees an ad for a children's movie contest, finds an old camera in the attic and gets busy. But the hapful 10-year old faces a painful dilemma as a contest finalist.

COUNT BASIE'S ORCHESTRA DIRECT FROM THE MAGIC KINGDOM—PREMIERE SHOW!

BIG BANDS AT DISNEYLAND

Count Basie. There's enough jazz and dance band history in that name to fill a book. This month, as openers in a festival of big band concerts and in tribute to one of America's monumental jazz musicians, we bring you direct from Disneyland the orchestra of the late Count Basie. Other glowing names from the swingin' years will evoke memories of late night dancing and romance throughout our star-spangled summer!

William (Count) Basie, a familiar and ever-welcome performer at the Magic Kingdom, became a jazz pianist under the tutelage of another renowned keyboard artist, Fats Waller.

Basie had a sparkling, crisp piano style, and in 1938 he and his band

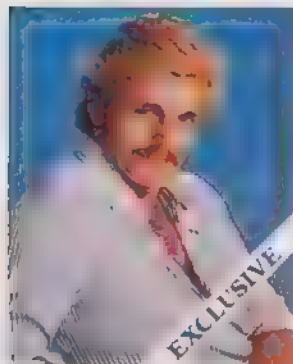

Count Basie's big band swings at Disneyland opened at the Roseland Ballroom in New York. By the end of the decade they were famous. Records, radio, and films helped spread their popularity

His orchestra continues in the great Count Basie tradition. Get on the bandwagon and let the good times roll!

NEW SEASON PREMIERE!

FIVE MILE CREEK

Louise Caire Clark, Rod Mullinar, Liz Burch,
Michael Caton, Priscilla Weems, Martin Lewis,
Gus Mercurio, with Jay Kerr as Con Madigan

Many of you have written saying how "Five Mile Creek," our Australian adventure series, keeps getting better the more you watch it. It's never too late to start — each episode is a complete story in itself — but the sooner you meet these remarkable characters, the more you'll enjoy sharing their exciting lives.

In "The Challenge" (premiering June 6), an ace coach driver (John Walton) charms the women of Five Mile Creek while trying to establish a stage line in competition to the Australian Express. A thundering stagecoach race settles the issue.

In "Blood, Sweat and Faith" (beginning June 20), horse trainer Ben Jones (Gus Mercurio) is severely injured in a bushranger raid. Meanwhile the power of prayer and a frontier priest (Jack McTernan) help American widow Maggie Scott (Louise Caire Clark) establish a school in the outback.

Ben Jones foils bushrangers

Aracuan Bird and Donald

Mouseterpiece Theater

Host George Plimpton's banter casts Disney animation in a new and pleasing light.

Seated in a comfortable armchair a la Alistair Cooke, Plimpton comments on cartoons like

"Lucky Number," "Mickey's Delayed Date," "Lighthouse Keeping," "The Pied Piper" and "Gentleman's Gentleman."

Of special interest this month is "Blame It on the Samba," a Latin American fantasy from Disney's full-length "Melody Time," featuring Donald Duck, Jose Carioca, the Aracuan Bird and swing organist Ethel Smith.

SMALL WONDERS

"Donald's Garden"

Donald Duck makes war on a gopher who's intent on devouring his prize watermelons. Gopher turns the tables with calamitous results — to Donald's garden. This cartoon follows "The Cat from Outer Space" (see page 10).

"Bud's Garage"

Bud, who makes unusual use of commonplace things, shows you how to tie-dye fabrics for colorful effects.

June 1, 3, 6, 9, 11, 14, 16, 20, 26

"The Adventures of Chip 'n' Dale"

This animated featurette stars Chip 'n' Dale as swingers with a treetop penthouse in Central Park. They make a date with a flirty nightclub singer named Clarice, and their lives aren't quite the same from that moment on.

June 2, 3, 17, 21, 25

"Hang Your Hat on the Wind"

A Navajo boy captures an escaped race horse and cleverly evades the real owner's efforts to get his horse back.

"Musical Farmer"

Mickey Mouse tries to photograph a barnyard hootenanny and brings down the house. This lively musical cartoon follows "Give My Regards to Broadway" (see page 17).

We're All Ears

Linda Palmer
Subscriber Services Director

Dear Friends,

We think summer TV viewing should be as fresh and lively as the season itself—not just warmed over repeats. So we've created a "Star-Spangled Summer" full of treats! You'll see movies on "Jiminy Cricket Theatre," an entire series of films like "The Love Bug" and "Heidi," plus new programs such as "Disney Family Album"—and that's just for starters!

I recently watched a segment of "Disney Family Album." Although I've been with Disney for over 14 years and have heard of the folks who worked with Walt, I didn't know much about them as individuals. This program gives you an intimate look at the kind of people who invent voices for temperamental ducks or create happy-go-lucky crickets. I also learned a lot about Walt Disney and what it was like to work with him from their recollections. It's a captivating, inspiring show. Be sure to catch the opening episode featuring Clarence "Ducks" Nash. "Five Mile Creek" starts off its new season this month too. If you've liked what you've seen so far, wait till you see what's coming—even more action, drama, and humor as well as those marvelous production values you've said you appreciate.

Please continue sending your 35mm slides and prints of your children and pets. We've reproduced some this month on page 26, and we'd love to see more. Keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Linda

P.S. My husband has something new to cheer about this Father's Day—and so do I! He, our daughter Holly and I have just welcomed a newcomer to our family—Erin Michelle, born April 8

MORE CHEERS FOR CHARLIE AND THE CHANNEL!

As both a parent and PTA president, I wish to commend you on the many fine and wholesome programs your channel presents. Many of the virtues we wish to instill in our children are illustrated in the themes of your shows. Thank you.

Diana Maul
Portland, OR

We all—father (36), mother (33), and sons (6½ & 4½)—watched "The Gentleman Tramp" and "Modern Times," and enjoyed them. Our 6-year-old son was absolutely rolling on the floor during "Modern Times." Please give us more!

Mrs. P. G. Verrey
Arlington, VA

Thanks for showing excellent movies like Charlie Chaplin's "Modern Times." When we viewed it our four-year-old son watched too. Later that day we ate at a restaurant that had pictures of famous film stars. Our son recognized Chaplin in one and remembered the enjoyment he'd received earlier in the day from the movie.

Kevin Houser
Grosse Pointe Park, MI

The wide range of material on The Disney Channel makes it interesting to all ages. I have greatly enjoyed seeing the Chaplin films shown to date and am looking forward to watching more.

I am an educator and often recommend your programs to my fifth grade students. In turn, they frequently ask if I have seen various shows on The Disney Channel. Keep up the excellent work!

QUESTIONS...

I'm curious about Peter McEnery. My children and I saw "The Fighting Prince of Donegal" and "The Moonspinners," and really enjoyed them. Is Mr. McEnery still appearing in films? Where is he from and how old is he?

Joyce Young
Sandy, UT

Peter McEnery was born in 1940 and grew up in Brighton, England. He appeared in the "Pictures" series on Masterpiece Theatre last year and acts regularly with the Royal Shakespeare Company.

On "Welcome to Pooh Corner" do the actors in the costumes also speak the roles, or are the voices done by someone else?

Branda Fitzjarrald
Irvine, CA

The actors who appear in costume as the characters on "Welcome to Pooh Corner" are not the same as those who do the voices.

The Disney Channel welcomes letters from viewers about programming and The Disney Channel Magazine. Letters for publication should be addressed to The Disney Channel Subscriber Services, 4111 W. Mickey's Birthday Wish

Exploring the Archives

Dave Smith, archivist for Walt Disney Productions, answers questions and provides information about the studio's history and its productions.

Did I hear Ronald Colman's voice in the Donald Duck cartoon, "Donald's Double Trouble"?—L.G., Fresno, Calif.

In that cartoon, where Donald tries to impress Daisy with a double who has a perfect voice, we used actor Leslie Denison doing a Ronald Colman-like voice. Many times Disney cartoons included caricatures of stars, but their voices were always provided by imitators. In fact, in "The Autograph Hound" Peter Lind Hayes did the voices of Robert Taylor, Charlie McCarthy, Groucho Marx, Edward G. Robinson, Joe E. Brown, Ronald Colman, Gary Cooper, Lionel Barrymore, Stepin Fetchit, Bing Crosby, Bob Burns, Hugh Herbert, Charles Laughton and Clark Gable.

What is the actual date of Donald Duck's 50th birthday?

—A.S., Mt. Pleasant, Iowa

The date we are celebrating as Donald Duck's 50th birthday is June 9th, 1984. This is 50 years from the date of the general release of "The Wise Little Hen," the first cartoon in which he appeared. Actually, due to the importance of the occasion, Walt Disney Productions will be sponsoring worldwide celebrations throughout the year.

Don at 14

ARE YOU AWARE THAT:

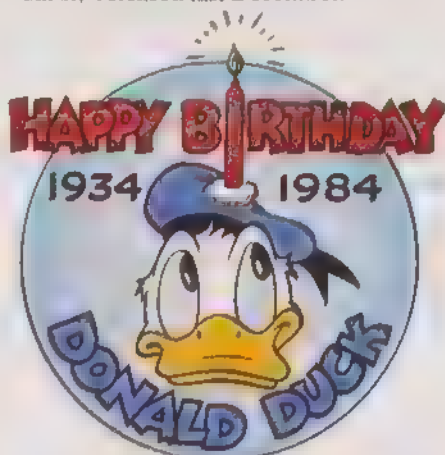

...The same man has done Donald Duck's voice from 1934 to the present—Clarence Nash. He is known around the Disney Studio as Ducky Nash (see page 6).
...Donald Duck starred in 128 theatrical cartoons
...He also appeared in one Silly Symphony cartoon, 28 Mickey Mouse cartoons, five feature films and assorted educational, governmental and television productions

...Donald's daily comic strip began in newspapers on February 7, 1938, and is still being published

...The first book starring Donald came out in 1935, but he did appear in a "Wise Little Hen" book the previous year.

...The only Donald Duck cartoon to win an Oscar was "Der Fuehrer's Face" (1943), though nine other Donald Duck shorts were nominated.

...Donald Duck's most recent film appearance was in "Mickey's Christmas Carol," released last December.

At age 50, Donald Duck is a star whose broadbilled face girdles the globe

...Donald's quackspeak is hard enough to understand in English. For foreign language versions of "Mickey's Christmas Carol," he is equally tongue-tangling in Spanish, French, Italian, German, Portuguese, Swedish, Norwegian, Danish and Japanese.

...In 1978 Donald Duck was banned in Helsinki, Finland because he didn't wear pants.

...Donald Duck comic books appear in 36 languages published in 46 countries. There is even a new one published in Latin.

...In "Donald Gets Drafted," his middle name is given as Fauntleroy.

...The early collectible Donald Duck merchandise is distinctive because Donald had a much larger bill than he has today.

...Donald's Uncle Scrooge made his debut in a 1947 comic book.

...During World War II, Donald was featured on over 400 insignias designed for military units as a public service by the Disney Studio.

...In "The Three Caballeros" (1945) Donald dances with a live-action actress—Aurora Miranda.

...Huey, Dewey and Louie first joined Donald in "Donald's Nephews" (1938).

...Donald Duck appeared in a color cartoon a year before his fellow actor, Mickey Mouse

...Possibly the Donald Duck cartoon seen by more people in a short time than any other was "The New Spirit," made for the Treasury Department in 1942.

...The most popular Disney educational film is "Donald in Mathmagic Land" (1959).

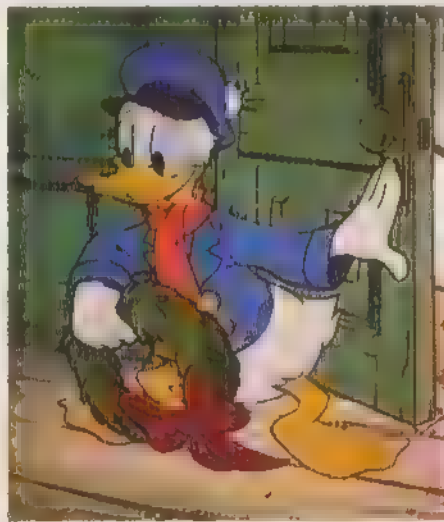

...Donald Duck has appeared in more films than any of the other Disney characters.

DISNEY CHANNEL TRIVIA

... "The Love Bug" (see page 5) was the top-grossing film in the U.S. in 1969.

...Sandy Duncan, starring in "The Cat from Outer Space" (see page 10), came to public notice while appearing in an inventive television commercial for a Los Angeles bank. She made her movie debut in Disney's "$1,000,000 Duck."

...Roger Mobley, co-starred in "Emil and the Detectives" (see page 15), came out of "retirement" 16 years later to play a policeman in a Disney TV show, "The Kids Who Knew Too Much." In the meantime, after playing "Gallegher" in Disney's teleseries, Mobley served as a paratrooper and worked in a hospital in Texas.

☐ SUPERDAD

Bob Crane, Barbara Rush, Kurt Russell, Joe Flynn, Kathleen Cody, Dick Van Patten

An overly-protective father who wants to keep an eye on his teenage daughter decides to act like one of the gang. But the harder Dad tries to cross the generation gap the wider it gets, until he finally learns a lesson about letting go and "letting grow."

☐ THE LIGHT IN THE FOREST

Fess Parker, Carol Lynley, James MacArthur

Born white but raised by Indians, True Son is reunited with his real family against his wishes. He rebels against colonial society until a young woman helps him find acceptance from his people and peace within himself.

☐ Smoke

Ron Howard, Earl Holliman, Jacqueline Scott, Andy Devine

Grief-stricken and withdrawn after his father's death, a young boy causes tension in the family when he rejects his step-father's attempts to help. By rescuing and caring for an injured stray German Shepherd, he gains greater compassion for others and new hope.

Table Talk

TAP A RESOURCE—TAPE A GRANDPARENT!

In "Portrait of Grandpa Doc," Greg recalls many meaningful conversations with his grandfather. Talking to older folks can open wonderful windows onto the past.

This summer, spend an afternoon tape recording an interview with your grandparents. Start with these questions and add your own. Invite the entire family to participate. When you're finished, ask someone to type and distribute copies of the interview to all the family members—even those far away. If your grandparents aren't around, interview neighbors or family friends who are senior citizens. Your interest will please them—and reward you!

- 1) Describe the people in your family. What do you remember best about each of them?

- 2) Where did you live? What do you remember most about your house, yard and town?
- 3) Who were your best friends? What did you do together? What were your favorite activities?
- 4) What was school like? Recall a school incident that still stands out in your memory.
- 5) What did you dream of becoming when you were young? Who were your heroes and heroines?
- 6) What world or national events made the greatest impressions on you when you were young?
- 7) Name some things—events, people or accomplishments—that made you very a) happy, b) sad, c) proud, d) embarrassed, e) worried, f) confident.
- 8) What do you think is the greatest difference between growing up when you did and growing up now?
- 9) What do you think was better about the past? What is best about the present? What do you think the future will be like?
- 10) Do you have a favorite saying that inspired you throughout your life?

WAPATULA NEWS BRIEFS

Sheriff Gridlock reported today that crime in Wapatula went up 65% last month due to the number of traffic citations written after the installation of a stop light on Main Street.

Verna Weldone was arrested for parking in the handicap space at Rodney's Market as a protest against Rodney's beef prices. "I had a bone to pick with him," she told reporters.

The Wapatula Ladies Auxiliary has planned its annual picnic and dogwood observation trip to Wapatula State Forest for Sunday.

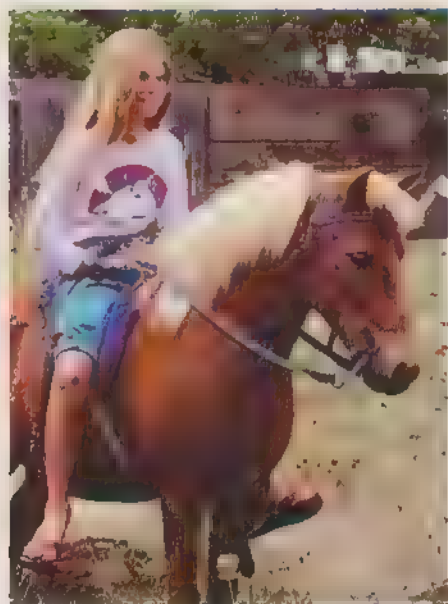

The Wapatula Drive-In Theater will reopen Monday after being closed for improvements this winter. Extensive renovations include a popcorn machine and new restroom doors.

Make A Dancing Duck For Donald's Birthday!

To make a Donald puppet, glue this page to a piece of cardboard. (A file folder works well.) After the glue has dried, cut out the pieces and punch holes where indicated. Next, fasten Donald's arms, legs and head to his body with paper fasteners. Thread strings through the holes in Donald's hands and at the top of his head. Tie the other ends of the strings to a popsicle stick or pencil. Adjust length. Wiggle the stick to make Donald dance and sing "Happy Birthday" to himself.

HAVE A BACKYARD CARNIVAL WITH THE KIDS OF DEGRASSI STREET!

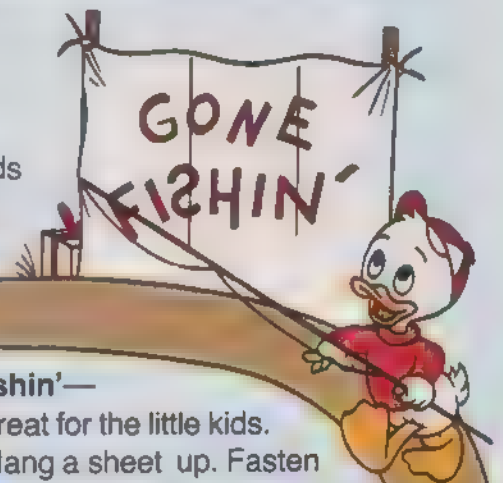

Watch "Jiminy Cricket Theatre" June 3, 6, 11, 14, 16, 17, 20, 25, 28, 30

The kids of DeGrassi Street would be the first to agree that a backyard carnival is a lot of fun! Get together with the kids on YOUR street, add your own ideas to those here and create a great event for the neighborhood. Charge a small admission fee or sell individual tickets for each activity to cover your expenses and make some spending money.

BOOTHS & GAMES:

White Elephant Booth—
Ask neighbors to donate odds and ends to sell. One kid's junk is another kid's treasure.

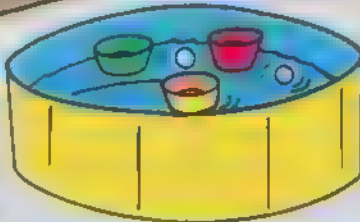

Gone Fishin'—

Great for the little kids. Hang a sheet up. Fasten a big safety pin to the end of a fishing pole. Someone stands behind the sheet and attaches a small prize for each child who "goes fishing."

Ping-Pong Toss—

Fill a big tub or plastic wading pool with water. Float margarine tubs in the water. Everyone has three tries to toss ping-pong balls into the margarine tubs.

REFRESHMENTS:

PRIZES:

Everyone donates old trinkets and small toys (cereal box type stuff) they don't want anymore for prizes.

- * Cookies and cupcakes Ask Mom if she'll bake a cake to raffle off.
- * Crushed ice in paper cups with fruit punch flavoring
- * Orange Slurpees— Push a peppermint stick into a whole unpeeled orange, then use it like a straw to slurrrrrp the orange juice.

Watch For Another Super Activity From "The Kids Of DeGrassi Street" In July!

GOOFY'S GIFT FOR DAD

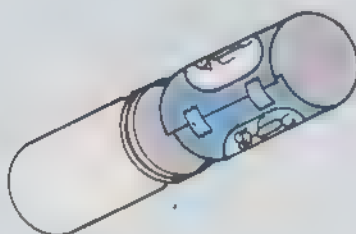

Watch GOOFY'S SALUTE TO FATHER

June 17, 19, 22, 24, 26, 28, and 30

On Father's Day tell Dad you think he's dandy with this nifty photo paperweight made from a jar and other around-the-house items. He'll like having his favorite family photos on display wherever he uses it.

YOU'LL NEED:

- A wide-mouth bottle or jar (wash and dry before using) and its lid
- White all-purpose glue
- Paintbrush
- Pencil
- Scissors
- Four family snapshots
- Stiff white drawing paper
- A block of wood
- Paint or varnish

1. Fit a piece of paper to the inside of the jar. Take it out and use it as a pattern. Cut the drawing paper to the correct size using your paper pattern.

2. Draw four ovals or rectangles spaced an equal distance apart and about 1 inch from the bottom of the white paper. Cut them out carefully.

3. Tape your photos so they show through the openings. Slip the paper with the photos taped to it into the jar with the pictures upside down. Tape the overlapping edges of the paper.

4. Paint or varnish the block of wood. Paint the jar lid. Wait till they both dry. Glue the lid to the block of wood.

5. Screw the jar into its lid. Now the pictures should be right side up. If you wish, decorate the top of the jar (the part that used to be the bottom) with stickers or a painted design.

6. Wrap and give to Dad!

Tom and Anne use facts about light and color to solve a mystery this month. Try this experiment to find out more about how reflected light influences the colors you see.

We see different colors because of the way light is reflected from or absorbed by different objects. Here's an example of how reflected light influences color vision. Copy these disks on white cardboard circles about 2½ inches wide. Use black marking pens for the dark areas. Put a pin through the center of each disk and spin it under bright light. You will see different colors. The white patches reflect white light but the black patches stop your eye from registering it. Instead, you see only some of the colors contained in the white light.
